Marcela High Priestess, Sacred Arts Facilitator, VERON Medicine Woman, Temple Alchemist

Founder of Sacred Feminine Medicine, Marcela first came to unmistakably recognize the Goddess in her explorations of the sacred feminine through middle eastern dance, also known as bellydance or wombdance. Bewitched, she became captivated by the serpentine energy of the shakti rising through her body in waves and entranced by the music of rhythmic drum beats. Her enchantment was where she began to synchronize to her inner priestess and the beginning of her life-long love affair.

Marcela's yearning for a deeper understanding of the Goddess unearthed through the dance, started her on a journey of many twists and turns, revealing the Goddess in her many forms, many faces and many aspects. The Goddess expression's manifold layers came through in her diversified studies through the sacred arts. She continued to study the Divine Feminine, sacred sexuality and embodied spirituality and pursue her passion and love of the creative, intuitive and healing arts as part of her life's work.

With a Master's degree in Women's Spirituality and Creative Expression, she has an advanced breadth of knowledge in Priestessing as well as an advanced license in The Art of Feminine Presence®, certified in Feminine Spirituality Leadership, Vibrational Medicine, and Feng Shui. Marcela has also been involved with Shakti Rising Women's Organization and part of their Director's Circle, NorCal Leadership and National Teaching Team. She is also an Intuitive Healer, Hand Analyst, Face Reader and Tarot Practitioner.

Marcela is a sought out mentor who guides women to Re-Ignite their Fire, Return to their Essence and Re-Awaken their Feminine Magic. She offers private and group Sacred Ruby Retreats and more. She is known internationally and located both in the NYC + San Francisco, Ca area.
